DRAGON KING OF THE FOUR SEAS

In the geography of ancient China, large water bodies were found in each of the four cardinal directions. The four seas thus became a metaphor for the boundaries of China, with the belief that each of the seas were governed by Dragon Kings. As divine rulers of the waters and the Five Elements, the Dragon Kings of the Four Seas manifested in two forms - their human persona and dragon deity form. They were worshipped to bring peace and safety to all seas, lakes and water bodies, and believed to rule all weather on Earth.

CHINESE 龙 DRAGONS

A mythical creature that embodies power, strength and fortune, the Chinese dragon is one of the four celestial animals in Feng Shui and highly regarded for bearing "Sheng Chi", or "celestial breath." The breath of the dragon is the most desired energy in Feng Shui as its presence is believed to attract wealth, luck and success. The formidable creature was also used exclusively by the Emperor in ancient China, reflecting nobility and excellence to the highest degree.

DIVINEWAY FENGSHUI

From a young age, Master Louis Cheung was greatly interested in Chinese culture and history. In his early twenties, he had already begun practicing Fengshui and Taoism Rituals to aid people. In 2010, he established his company in Singapore and expanded with a Fengshui Retail Shop opened in 2018 at 374 Joo Chiat Road. His motto is to "Enhance Wellness Avoid Calamity". He leaves his footprints in Hong Kong, China, Japan, Myanmar, Vietnam, Europe, the USA, and Africa, with clients who take his consultation seriously.

The master to go to in a one-stop, one-on-one consultation for all matters. From business relocations, new partnerships, mergers, mentorship, relationships, health, and even court cases; nothing is small for him to resolve. Careers, relationships, health, and wealth issues are frequently dealt with. Master Louis Cheung loves his work and he excels in it.

開光 BLESSING

Upon completion, each of the limited 500 pieces are then imbued with the energy of the two animals. This is done by Master Louis Cheung who invites the energy of the powerful dragon and the pairing animal into the collectible, and amplify their positive traits and auspicious energy for it to attract even more of such energy. Every piece has been blessed with wishes of wealth, fortune and success for their future owners.
